

Accelerated Reader Program
Certification Levels - Grade 1
Grade Level Goal – 10 points/student

For each level a comprehension score of 85%, or better, is required.

Emergent Reader: To achieve this level the student must read books on their own, pass the corresponding tests, and have a point accumulation of 5 points.

Award for Emergent: The student's certificate will be presented to them, and they will be recognized in chapel.

Independent Reader: To achieve this level the student must read 3 books on their own, pass the corresponding tests, and have a point accumulation of 10 points.

Award for Independent: A gold seal will be applied to the student's certificate under Independent, and they will be recognized in chapel.

Super Reader: To achieve this level the student must read books, pass the corresponding tests, and have a point accumulation of 15 points.

Award for Super: A gold seal will be applied to the student's certificate under Super, and the student will be recognized in chapel.

Advanced Reader: To achieve this level the student must read books, pass the corresponding tests, and have a point accumulation of 20 points.

Award for Advanced: A gold seal will be applied to the student's certificate under Advanced, and they will be recognized in chapel.

Progressive Reader: To achieve this level the student must read books, pass the corresponding tests, and have a point accumulation of 35 points.

Award for Progressive: A gold seal will be applied to the student's certificate under Progressive, and the student will be recognized in chapel.

Classic Reader: To achieve this level the student must read books, pass the corresponding tests, and have a point accumulation of 50 points.

Award for Classic: A gold seal will be applied to the student's certificate under Classic, and the student will be recognized in chapel.

Star Reader: To achieve this level the student must read books, pass corresponding tests, and have a point accumulation of 75 points.

Award for Star: A gold seal will be applied to the student's certificate under Star, and the student will be recognized in chapel.

Honors Reader: To achieve this level the student must read books, pass the corresponding tests, and have a point accumulation of 100 points.

Award for Honors: A gold seal will be placed on the student's certificate for each 100 points received. Students will be presented the certificate in chapel and will sign the Honors book.

Accelerated Reader Program
Certification Levels – Grade 2
Grade Level Goal – 15 points/student

For each level a comprehension score of 85%, or better, is required.

Independent Reader: To achieve this level the student must read 3 books on their own, pass corresponding tests, and have a point accumulation of 10 points.

Award for Independent: A gold seal will be applied to the student's certificate under Independent, and the student will be recognized in chapel.

Super Reader: To achieve this level the student must read books, pass the corresponding tests, and have an accumulated total of 15 points.

Award for Super: A gold seal will be applied to the student's certificate under Super, and the student will be recognized in chapel.

Advanced Reader: To achieve this level the student must read books, pass the corresponding tests, and have an accumulated total of 20 points.

Award for Advanced: A gold seal will be applied to the student's certificate under Advanced, and the student will be recognized in chapel.

Progressive Reader: To achieve this level the student must read books, pass the corresponding tests, and have a point accumulation of 35 points.

Award for Progressive: A gold seal will be applied to the student's certificate under Progressive, and the student will be recognized in chapel.

Classic Reader: To achieve this level the student must read books, pass the corresponding tests, and have a point accumulation of 50 points.

Award for Classic: A gold seal will be applied to the student's certificate under Classic, and the student will be recognized in chapel.

Star Reader: To achieve this level the student must read books, pass the corresponding tests, and have a point accumulation of 75 points.

Award for Star: A gold seal will be applied to the student's certificate under Star, and the student will be recognized in chapel.

Honors Reader: To achieve this level the student must read books, pass the corresponding tests, and have a point accumulation of 100 points

Award for Honors: A gold seal will be placed on the student's certificate for each 100 points received. The student will be presented the certificate in chapel and will sign the Honors book.

Accelerated Reader Program
Certification Levels – Grades 3, 4 & 5

Grade Level Goals

3rd Grade 25 points

4th Grade 30 points

5th Grade 35 points

For each level a comprehension score of 85%, or better, is required.

Independent Reader: To achieve this level the student must read 3 books on their own, pass the corresponding tests, and have a point accumulation of 10 points.

Award for Independent: A gold seal will be applied to the student's certificate under Independent, and the student will be recognized in chapel.

Super Reader: To achieve this level the student must read books, pass the corresponding tests, and have an accumulated total of 15 points.

Award for Super: A gold seal will be applied to the student's certificate under Super, and the student will be recognized in chapel.

Advanced Reader: To achieve this level the student must read books, pass the corresponding tests, and have an accumulated total of 20 points.

Award for Advanced: A gold seal will be applied to the student's certificate under Advanced, and the student will be recognized in chapel.

Classic Reader: To achieve this level the student must read books, pass the corresponding tests, and have a point accumulation of 50.

Award for Classic: A gold seal will be applied to the student's certificate under Classic, and the student will be recognized in chapel.

Star Reader: To achieve this level the student must read books, pass the corresponding tests, and have a point accumulation of 75 points.

Award for Star: A gold seal will be applied to the student's certificate under Star, and the student will be recognized in chapel.

Honors Reader: To achieve this level the student must read books, pass the corresponding tests, and have a point accumulation of 100 points.

Award for Honors: A gold seal will be placed on the student's certificate for each 100 points received. The student will be presented the certificate in chapel and will sign the Honors book.